

Table of Contents

| | |
|---|----|
| 1. Introduction | 1 |
| 2. Healthy Living | |
| • Healthy Snacking – To munch or not to munch? | 3 |
| • The Basic Shelf: Planning Meals on a Budget – Smart staples | 8 |
| • Diabetes and Cardiovascular Disease – Get to the heart of it | 14 |
| • Cholesterol + Diabetes – Healthy nutrition and lifestyle choices | 17 |
| • Diabetes and Body Image – Mirror, mirror | 21 |
| • Weight Management – Weighing the options | 24 |
| 3. Managing Diabetes | |
| • Travelling with Diabetes – Trains, planes, and automobiles | 29 |
| • Problem Solving for Blood Glucose Control – Putting the pieces together | 33 |
| • Diabetes in Pregnancy and Gestational Diabetes – Great expectations | 37 |
| • Children with Type 2 Diabetes – It's a family affair | 44 |

| | |
|--|-----|
| 4. High Risk Groups – Around the world with diabetes | |
| • Healthy Eating for Caribbeans and Africans | 49 |
| • Healthy Eating for East and Southeast Asians | 54 |
| • Healthy Eating for Latin Culture | 62 |
| • Healthy Eating for South Asians | 67 |
| 5. Special Considerations | |
| • Celiac Disease – No wheat for me? | 73 |
| • Intensive Therapy – Think like a pancreas | 79 |
| • Physical Activity for Type 1 Diabetes – Get ready, set, go | 83 |
| 6. Appendix | |
| • Treatment of Hypoglycemia | 91 |
| • The Plate Method | 92 |
| • The Handy Portion Guide | 93 |
| • Resources | 94 |
| • Glossary of Terms | 98 |
| • Acknowledgements | 101 |
| • Index | 102 |

The material provided in this manual is intended for informational and educational purposes only and is provided with the understanding that the Canadian Diabetes Association is not engaged in providing medical service or advice. To discuss your own medical needs, please consult your healthcare professional.